

KLove is an awesome radio station that supports and encourages our family and community.
We do studies with young teens and the music is a source of encouragement/option for entertainment in our community.

It is absolutely essential to have listening options that uplift and encourage with clean language and music versus the alternative stations which I will not listen to in my home/car.

thank you. Sally Krenger